

SUMMER IN THE PARK CONCERT SERIES
Donation Form

Every summer in July and August, the University Heights Community Development Corporation sponsors a series of free, music concerts in historic Trolley Barn Park. Hundreds of residents come out to enjoy the music and fellowship with their neighbors. We depend upon the generosity of local businesses and residents to help underwrite the cost of this event. All donations support the Summer in the Park Concert Series and are tax deductible to the extent provided by the law.
